

Laura Kathryn Gilmer hails from Franklin, Tennessee. She currently is a multi-carded judge and is the editor for the online equine website, GoHorseShow. She graduated with a Master's Degree in Broadcast Journalism from the University of Southern California in 2002. Laura is the youngest winner of the AQHA Youth All Around in the nation when she was 11 years old. She is also the youngest to ever win the youth all around at the Congress. Laura has a smart, musically inclined 14 year-old son named Hunter who starts high school in the fall. She also travels, rescues dogs, and volunteers at a hospice in her spare time.

