Information from the Champions Center

Please Read

As an organization, the Champions Center continues to strive to provide our customers with unparalleled service, as we have since opening in 2004. However, we have been remiss in explaining our relationship regarding the location of our facility on the Clark County Fairgrounds and how it impacts all of our customers.

The Clark County Fairgrounds is owned by the residents of the County and under the control of the Clark County Commission. The day to day operations and management of the Fairgrounds are the responsibility of the Clark County Fair Board, as outlined in the Ohio Revised Code. The Champions Center and the covered outdoor arena are located on 17 acres of the fairgrounds that the Champions Center leases from the Clark County Commission.

The reasons for the explanation are the following:

1. The Fair Board is responsible for adhering to all of the rules and regulations for the campgrounds as outlined by the State of Ohio Director of Health and are responsible for posting the camping rules (see attached). Pay special attention to Rule 6.
2. Thus it is the responsibility of The Champions Center and our customers to abide by those rules since the campgrounds are not part of our leased acreage. We work with the fairgrounds to ensure that we are in compliance.
3. Although some of the rules have not been enforced in the past, recent visits from the Health Department, resulting in several violations, have made it necessary to adhere to all Camping Rules and Regulations.

We felt that it was important to notify your organization of the changes that have been made. Please share this information with your exhibitors.
